"I'll Fly Away" by Albert E. Brumley

sung by Graham and Michelle Scobie

Some glad morning when this life is o'er, I'll fly away,
To a home on God's celestial shore, I'll fly away.

Chorus - I'll fly away, O glory, I'll fly away,
When I die, hallelujah, by and by, I'll fly away.

When the shadows of this life have grown, I'll fly away,
Like a bird from prison bars has flown, I'll fly away.

Oh how glad and happy when we meet, I'll fly away,
No more cold iron shackles on my feet, I'll fly away.

Just a few more weary days and then, I'll fly away,
To a land where joys shall never end, I'll fly away.

"The Holbrook Song" by Graham Scobie

sung by Graham and Michelle Scobie

Heading west from Batemans Bay, up the Clyde I'm on my way, Bungendore and Queanbeyan, looks like I'm on the road again.
Canberra, Yass and Jugiong, heading south you can't go wrong, Gundagai, Tarcutta, too, looks like I'm heading back to you.

Chorus - Holbrook is the place I'm bound I've travelled this whole world around, There's just one place I always seek, on the Hume Highway at Ten Mile Creek.

When we arrive the kids all cheer,
a six hour drive needs a long, cold beer.
Mum and Dad wait at the door, been expecting us for an hour or more.
The pool, the park and Grandma's shop, having fun we never stop - Home town pizza and grandpa's farm, there's no end to this town's charm.

Born here back in '54, a country boy can't ask for more,
Where Morgan's Lookout cracks the sky and the Billabong is never dry.
It's the only inland Australian town with a couple of submarine's on the ground, It's the kind of place you can be proud,
I'll sing it's praises long and loud.

"The Robin Has Flown" by Graham Scobie

read by Chris Scobie

From Springvale, Manildra and PLC Croydon, From Wagga to Nyngan to Holbrook -
The Robin has flown.
From Yackandandah, Kildrummie, Table Top, Sans Souci -
The Robin has flown.
Woomargama, Burnley, Braeside, Mount Annan -
The Robin has flown.
From King Street, Kala,
And Banksia, Broulee -
The Robin has flown.
From Ian, Graham, Duncan, Jim, Rob, Stu and grand-kids, too -
The Robin has flown.
Now rested and nested,
At peace with the flock,
The Robin has flown -
Her legacy sown.
